Saltram, Auguſt 15.

THIS Morning, at about Nine o'Clock, Their Majeſties, and their Royal Highneſſes the Princeſſes, ſet out from Exeter, and arrived at this Seat, in perfect Health, at Half after Three this Afternoon.

The following Addreſſes from the Mayor and Corporation of the City of Exeter have been preſented to the King and Queen, which Their Majeſties were pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen and Common Council of the City of Exeter, in Chamber aſſembled.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen and Common Council of this your Majeſty's antient City of Exeter, beg Leave to pay our Duty to your Majeſty, on your Arrival in this Part of your Kingdom, and to expreſs our humble Thanks for your Majeſty's gracious Condeſcenſion, in honoring this City with your Preſence.

Your Majeſty's faithful Citizens of Exeter have eagerly embraced every Opportunity of ſtanding forward, and giving every Proof of their Loyalty and of their Zeal in Support of your Majeſty's Government; but it is peculiarly grateful to them to be permitted to approach your Royal Perſon, and in this auguſt Preſence to teſtify their Duty and their Loyalty to your Majeſty, their firm and unalterable Attachment to your Majeſty's moſt Illuſtrious Family, and their Veneration for thoſe Virtues, which add Luſtre and Dignity to the moſt exalted Station.

Your Majeſty will, here, as in every other Part of your Majeſty's Dominions, perceive, that there is but one Mind amongſt all Ranks of your Subjects. The earneſt Wiſhes of the Nation are united, and they are all directed, to the Support of the Honor of your Crown, the Preſervation of your Majeſty's Life and Health, and to your Attainment of every public and domeſtic Happineſs, as your Majeſty's gracious Endeavours are, and always have been, directed to the Liberty, the Security, and the Proſperity of your People.

The many eſſential Advantages we derive and daily experience from the Adminiſtration of your Majeſty's auſpicious Government, cannot but make us anxious for the Continuance of it. We are thankful for the great Bleſſing, which, under Divine Providence, we have lately received; and rejoice in the preſent happy Proſpect, that your Majeſty's Life may be lengthened for many Years to come; and that the favoured People of this Nation will long poſſeſs the Happineſs and Advantage of contemplating your Majeſty's Illuſtrious Character, which, as it is the higheſt in Rank and Dignity, is alſo the firſt in affording to the World an eminent Example of all the Duties and Virtues of public and private Life.

Given under our Common Seal, at the Guildhall of the City of Exeter, this Thirteenth Day of Auguſt, in the Year of our Lord One thouſand ſeven hundred and eighty-nine.

To the QUEEN's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen and Common Council of the City of Exeter, in Chamber aſſembled.

WE, the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen and Common Council of the City of Exeter, beg Leave to expreſs our humble Thanks to your Majeſty for your gracious Condeſcenſion in admitting us to your Royal Preſence on your Arrival in this His Majeſty's antient and loyal City.

We feel the higheſt Satisfaction in having the Honour of preſenting ourſelves to your Majeſty in this Place, and of bearing this public Teſtimony of our unfeigned Attachment to the Royal Conſort of our beloved and honoured Sovereign. Your Majeſty's elevated Situation, but more thoſe ſplendid and amiable Qualities which adorn it, demand the univerſal Homage of an affectionate People. Such illuſtrious Examples not only fill our Minds with Reſpect and Admiration, but they are public Benefits, and form the Habits of Mankind to Virtue.

Your Majeſty has received great Marks of Divine Favour, and the firſt Wiſh of your Heart is accompliſhed. May our Gracious Sovereign long continue to reign over a People, ſenſible of their preſent

p'eſent Proſperity and the principal Source from whence it is derived. May your Majeſty long live to partake of the Bleſſings we enjoy, and may you continue to poſſeſs the Affection of our Sovereign and of His People, and obtain every Reward of public and domeſtic Felicity which ſuch Excellence deſerves.
